Aims of Layfield Primary School

- To be a caring community, which provides good support for the guidance and welfare of the pupils whilst creating a safe secure environment where pupils feel confident and can learn.
- To provide teaching of the highest quality suitable to the needs of the individual from a committed staff so that each child may reach his or her full potential
- To achieve high standards both academically and behaviourally by confident independent children who are able to take full responsibility for their own learning.
- To work closely with the parents in an effective partnership where parents are regularly informed of pupil's progress and support the work of the teachers to provide a good quality education for pupils.
- To attain a positive ethos where the development of the whole child, moral, social, spiritual and cultural is based on mutual respect.
- To provide equal opportunities for every pupil, regardless of colour, creed, religion or gender
- To promote values which include:
 - British democracy
 - Rule of law
 - Individual Liberty
 - Respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs (including no faith)

Together we will:

- Support children with any special needs.
- Encourage the children to keep the school rules.
- Support the children's learning to help them achieve their best.

Children's Rights

We recognise and support the Rights Respecting Ethos of the United Nations Convention of the Rights of the Child.

Children have rights and responsibilities. By signing this document you are pledging your support and to work in partnership with our school and your child to ensure that these are met.
